(as last revised 7.14.17)

ACTIVE 2030 ASSOCIATION
United States and Canada
BYLAWS
(Last Revised July 14, 2017)

PREAMBLE

"We, the members of 'Active 20-30 United States and Canada', realizing the great good and many advantages that can come from an association of young men and women; That through such an association we can contribute to the betterment and welfare of our prospective communities and of our fellow citizens; That through our efforts to help others we will develop character within ourselves, become better citizens and learn to live and appreciate a fuller and richer life; Do ordain and establish this set of Bylaws for "Active 20-30 United States and Canada."

ARTICLE I
NAME AND ADDRESS

SECTION 1. NAME: The name of the organization shall be "Active 20-30 United States and Canada."

SECTION 2. LOCATION: This organization shall have its address in the city of Sacramento, California

ARTICLE II
OBJECTIVES

The objectives of this organization shall be:

1. To develop members, by precept and example, into a more intelligent, aggressive and serviceable citizenship, and to create in them a desire to participate actively in civic and welfare work in their respective communities.
2. To create in every member a personal desire for knowledge and self-improvement, and to develop trust, friendship and understanding between members in their professional and social activities.
3. To provide a practical means of forming enduring friendships and good-will among its members in their communities, their country, and throughout the world.
4. To hold and promote entertainment, instructions, programs and social gatherings in and for the furtherance of the purposes of "Active 20-30 United States and Canada."

ARTICLE III
EMBLEM, MOTTO, COLORS AND OFFICIAL LANGUAGES

SECTION 1. EMBLEM: The emblem shall be an insignia with a Buzz Saw encircling an Hour Glass, and inscribed "Active 20-30 International."

SECTION 2. MOTTO: The motto shall be, "Youth, to be served, must serve."

SECTION 3. SLOGAN: The slogan shall be, "A man never stands so tall as when he kneels to help a child." Each club may choose one of the following versions of the slogan for use in their club:

- a. "One never stands so tall as when kneeling to help a child";
- b. "Man never stands so tall as when kneeling to help a child";
- c. "A person never stands so tall as when kneeling to help a child."

SECTION 4. COLORS: The official colors shall be red, blue and gold.

SECTION 5. LANGUAGE: The official language shall be English.

SECTION 6. NAME AND LOGO USE: Active 20-30 US & Canada member clubs are authorized to use the Active 20-30 name and logo according to the following terms, and only when each of these four (4) conditions are met:

- a. The club is in “Good Standing” within Active 20-30 US & Canada, as defined in the organization’s Policies & Procedures;
- b. The club must use the colors, design and logo EXACTLY as registered;
- c. The club may place its name near or attached to the logo, but may not replace the word “International” within the logo;
- d. The club may place registered ® symbols next to the name and logo respectively.

Use of the name and logo when these conditions are not satisfied, is a violation of the bylaws and the federal protection against registered trademark infringement. Such a violation may cost an offending club and each of the club’s individual board members a severe and significant amount. Liability to Active 20-30 US & Canada would include actual damages, profits, fees for use, and attorney’s fees and costs.

ARTICLE IV INCORPORATED BODIES

SECTION 1. NATIONAL: Active 20-30 United States & Canada is incorporated, nonpolitical and nonreligious.

ARTICLE VI NATIONAL BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. OFFICERS: The officers shall be the President, President-Elect, National Directors, Immediate Past President and Executive Director.

SECTION 2. GOVERNING BODY: The National Board shall be the governing administrative body of “Active 20-30 United States and Canada.”

SECTION 3. TERM OF OFFICE: All officers shall take office at the close of the Annual General Meeting in the year they are elected and serve until the close of the Annual General Meeting of the following calendar year or until their successors are elected and qualified.

SECTION 4. INTERPRETATION: The interpretation of the Bylaws by the National Board shall be final and binding, unless the interpretation by the National Board is rescinded at the subsequent National convention. The National Board’s interpretations must appear in writing and must be mailed to all member clubs within thirty (30) days of action. Additionally, if not rescinded at the subsequent National Convention, they will be added to (or deleted from) the Bylaws, in their next printing.

SECTION 5. NATIONAL BOARD MEMBERSHIP: Each Board Member shall be a member in good standing of a chartered Active 2030 Club throughout their term of office. In accordance with Article V (Section 4, Age Waiver) any member who shall be elected to office in their club or the National Association before reaching the age limit set forth in Article V, Section 1 will continue to be an active member, notwithstanding the member's age, until they complete the term of office to which they were elected and/or to which they automatically succeed or might have to fill at the end of their elected term.

SECTION 6. COMPENSATION: All directors except the Executive Director shall serve without compensation. The National Board shall, from time to time, fix the salary of the Executive Director and all other administrative employees.

SECTION 7. NOMINATIONS:

a. PRESIDENT-ELECT: All nominations shall be made from the floor of the convention at the time designated on the official program. However, each nominee shall have, not later than sixty (60) days prior to the opening day of the convention, filed with the Executive Director, a declaration of intention to run for the said office. The declaration must be accompanied by a Certificate signed by the Secretary of the club of which said nominee is a member, stating:

- (1) The age of the nominee;
- (2) The length of time nominee has been a member;
- (3) Previous offices held in Active 2030;
- (4) That the candidacy has been approved by a vote of the club’s Board, and is in good standing with National Active 20-30 United States and Canada.

b. ELIGIBILITY FOR PRESIDENT-ELECT: An individual candidate shall be considered eligible for the position of President-Elect when the following qualifications are met:

- (1) A member in good standing of their club for a minimum of three (3) years;
- (2) Has served as a President of an Active 20-30 United States and Canada Club or as National Director of Active 20-30 United States and Canada; and
- (3) Has not yet reached his or her 40th birthday as of August 1st in the year of the election.

In the event that no eligible candidate declares for this position, then nominations from the floor of the convention will be accepted (same eligibility standards apply). The candidate shall be nominated by the delegate or alternate delegate of their own club unless no other members of their club are present in which case the candidate may be nominated by the delegate carrying the candidate’s club’s proxy.

c. NATIONAL DIRECTOR: All nominations for National Director shall be made from the floor of the convention at the time designated on the official program. However, each nominee shall have, not later than sixty (60) days prior to the day of election, filed with the Executive Director a declaration of intention to run for office. The declaration must be accompanied by a Certificate signed by the Secretary of the club of which said nominee is a member, stating:

- (1) The age of the nominee;
- (2) The length of time nominee has been a member;
- (3) Previous offices held in Active 2030;
- (4) That the candidacy has been approved by a vote of the candidate club's Board, and the Club is in good standing with National Active 2030 United States and Canada.
- (5) That the candidate's club is within the clubs represented by the seat to which the nominee seeks to be elected National Director.

It shall be sufficient for the purpose of this section if the said declaration of intention and certificate be postmarked prior to the said time limit and addressed to the Executive Director. If no declarations of intention are filed for any of the above offices within the allotted time, nominations will be made from the floor of the convention. At least thirty (30) days prior to the opening day of the National Convention, the Executive Director will either publish in the National Newsletter, or mail to each club, a list of those declaring their candidacy for all offices, which shall list the facts as stated above.

d. ELIGIBILITY FOR NATIONAL DIRECTOR: An individual candidate shall be considered eligible for the position of National Director when the following qualifications are met:

- (1) A member in good standing for their club for a minimum of two (2) years;
- (2) Has served as a member of their Club's Board of Directors.

In the event that no eligible candidate declares for this position, then nominations from the floor of the convention will be accepted (same eligibility standards apply). The candidate shall be nominated by the delegate or alternate delegate of their own club unless no other members of their club are present in which case the candidate may be nominated by the delegate carrying the candidate's club's proxy. If no delegate is carrying the candidate's club's proxy then the candidate may be nominated by the delegate of a club that is in the Region which will be represented by the seat the nominee seeks.

SECTION 8: ELECTIONS:

a. President: Except where the National President-Elect shall have been appointed to fill a vacancy.

- (1) There shall be no election for the office of President as the PresidentElect shall automatically succeed to that office.
- (2) If the PresidentElect has been appointed by the board to fill a vacancy, both the offices of President and PresidentElect shall be elected at the next convention under the same rules provided below for election of the PresidentElect.

b. President-Elect: The President-Elect shall be elected at the National convention by ballot of the accredited voters. A majority of all votes cast shall be necessary for the election of the PresidentElect. In the event that any ballot cast does not show a majority for any nominee for the foregoing offices, the President shall designate a time and place for further balloting for such office. Prior to the second ballot, the nominee having the lowest vote on the first ballot shall be dropped. For each succeeding ballot the same procedure shall be followed until some nominee shall have received a majority of all votes cast. The provisions of Article VI, Sections 7a-b, shall apply to such nominations and elections.

c. National Director: The National Directors shall be elected at the National Convention by ballot of the accredited voters for each respective region. A majority of all votes cast shall be necessary for the election of a Director. In the event that any ballot cast does not show a majority for any nominee for such office, further balloting shall be conducted as described above for President-Elect. The provisions of Article VI, Sections 7c-d, shall apply to such nominations and elections.

SECTION 9. DUTIES:

- a. President: The President shall preside at all conventions, and at all meetings of the National Board. The President shall be the chief executive director and shall exercise general supervision over the work and activities of the association. The President shall perform such other duties as usually pertain to the office of President.
- b. President-Elect: In the event of the inability of the President to perform their duties, the President-Elect shall preside and perform the duties, and have the same authority as, the President. The President-Elect shall also perform such other duties as usually pertain to that office, or as will be assigned to him by the President or the National Board.
- c. National Director: Each National Director shall represent assigned clubs, and the duties shall be:
 - (1) To enforce the Bylaws of Active 2030;
 - (2) To call and preside over meetings of the assigned clubs, if necessary;
 - (3) To represent the will and interests of the clubs represented;

- d. Executive Director: The Executive Director (E.D.) shall:
 - (1) Assist the President and the National Board in conducting the business of the association;
 - (2) Perform such duties as are specified or implied in the Bylaws, or as will be assigned by the President or the National Board;
 - (3) Attend all meetings of the National Board and the National Convention and shall act as Secretary, but shall have no vote;
 - (4) Sign all documents issued by the association;
 - (5) Make an annual report to the National Board at the National Convention, the report shall contain all information required by the National Board;
- e. Treasurer: As the Chairman of the Budget and Finance committee the Treasurer will:
 - (1) Keep the accounts in the manner prescribed by the National Board;
 - (2) Receive all moneys paid to the association, giving receipt therefor, and shall deposit the same in such bank or banks as shall have been designated by the National Board;
 - (3) Disburse said moneys upon order of the Board;
 - (4) Make a financial report to the National Board at the Annual Convention or more often if required by the National Board.

SECTION 10. VACANCIES:

- a. President: If there becomes a vacancy in the office of President between Annual Conventions, the National Board shall appoint the President-Elect to become President for the remainder of the term.
- b. President-Elect: If a vacancy occurs in the office of the President-Elect between Annual Conventions, the National Board shall elect a qualified successor to fill the office for the remainder of the term.
- c. National Directors: If a vacancy occurs in the office of National Director between the National Conventions, the National Board shall elect a qualified member of a chartered club in the clubs represented where the vacancy occurs. The appointed person will serve until the end of the term. A successor, shall be elected at the next convention in the manner provided herein.

SECTION 11. REMOVAL: Any director may, for good cause, and after a hearing, be removed by a two-thirds vote of the members of the National Board, as long as the directors have been sent a notice by the Executive Director by registered mail, a notice containing a copy of the charges against the director and the time and place of the hearing, at least fifteen (15) days prior to the hearing thereon. The time, place and manner of conducting the said hearing shall be fixed by the President, except where the President is the party charged, and in such case the National Board shall so act. Removal pursuant to this section is effective immediately upon the voting thereof.

SECTION 12. BOARD VOTING RIGHTS: Only the National Board Members, which include the President, President-Elect, Immediate Past President, and National Directors for each Region, are authorized to vote on the Association-related matters and business requiring Board action.

ARTICLE VII NATIONAL BOARD REPRESENTATION

SECTION 1. REVIEW: The National Board will review the National Director's assigned clubs annually.

SECTION 2. ASSIGNMENT:

- a. The National Board will assign a number of clubs to each National Director.
- b. This assignment will be based upon representation of all clubs and is not limited to physical boundaries or territories.
- c. If the National Board sees the need to change the clubs assigned to a National Director, the changes will be based on one or more of the following:
 - (1) The number of National Directors changes due to expansion or loss of clubs.
 - (2) The Location of the club is not accessible to the National Director assigned.
- d. The Executive Director shall notify each affected club in writing within 30 days of any action taken.
- e. All clubs will be notified of the National Director Candidates that will be running to serve their clubs 60 days prior to the National Convention.

ARTICLE VIII NATIONAL BOARD

SECTION 1. MEETINGS:

- a. The National Board shall meet at such times and places as will be determined by action of the Board, by call of the President, or by the written request of four members of the Board. There shall be at least two meetings each year, one immediately after the close of the Annual Convention at which it is elected, and the other within three days prior to the first session of the succeeding Annual Convention. A written notice of time, place and purpose of all National Board meetings shall be mailed to each National Officer, the Secretary of each chartered club and to the chairs of all National Committees, by the Executive Director, at least thirty (30) days prior to the meeting.
- b. A copy of the minutes of each meeting of the National Board shall be distributed to each National Officer and upon request within thirty (30) days of the meeting, to each Active 2030 club.

SECTION 2. VOTING

- a. VOTING BY MAIL OR ELECTRONIC MAIL (EMAIL): VOTING BY MAIL OR ELECTRONIC MAIL (EMAIL): The National Board may, without meeting together, transact business by Mail or eMail, by voting on questions submitted to them by or with the approval of the President. For standard mail voting, thirty days will be allowed to return votes to the Executive Director. For eMail voting, five days will be allowed to return votes to the Executive Director. The voting shall be considered closed at the end of the respective periods (30 days for standard mail, 5 days for eMail), provided that a majority of the members of the Board have returned their votes by that time. It shall be considered closed at any time prior thereto if and when all the National Directors have returned their votes. If a majority of the National Board does not return their votes by the established deadline (30 days for standard mail, 5 days for eMail), the measure being voted upon shall be deemed to have failed. If any question receives more than one negative vote, the Executive Director shall call for a re-vote and the Board shall abide by the result of the second ballot. The Executive Director must preserve all such votes until the next meeting of the National Board, at which meeting the National Board shall order the disposition of such votes. In cases where a hearing is required by the National Bylaws, voting by mail shall not be permitted.

b. VOTING BY TELEPHONE CONFERENCE CALLS: The National Board may transact business by telephone conference calls by voting on the questions that are submitted to them by or with the approval of the President. The President will call for a verbal vote reply of aye or nay. The directors and National President-elect will identify themselves before verbally stating their vote (i.e., "Region 1 votes aye"). The Executive Director must preserve all votes until the next meeting of the National Board, at which meeting the National Board shall order the disposition of such votes. In cases where a hearing is required by the National Bylaws, voting by telephone conference calls shall not be permitted.

SECTION 3. EXPENSES: Each member of the National Board shall be reimbursed for the amount of their traveling expenses incurred while attending meetings of the National Association and to visitations to clubs within their respective regions, as long as said expenses are within the annual budget allocated to said Director's travel costs. The President (or designated Board member in the event the President is unable to attend) shall also be reimbursed for travel expenses to the Active 20-30 International Convention and Midterm Meetings as long as these expenses are within the President's budget. Such reimbursement shall be made from the National funds.

SECTION 4. QUORUM: At all meetings of the National Board, a majority of the Board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of all business, except in cases where a larger vote is required by these Bylaws.

SECTION 5. POWERS AND DUTIES: The National Board shall have the control and management of the affairs and funds of the association. They shall also have such powers and duties as may have been either expressly or implicitly conferred upon it by the Articles of Incorporation, or these Bylaws.

- c. Employ the Executive Director and any additional staff, and fix the compensation;
- d. Exercise general control and supervision over all directors and committees of the association;
- e. Make such rules and regulations as will be necessary to conduct the affairs of the association and fix such penalties as it deems just to enforce compliance therewith.

SECTION 6. EMERGENCY POWERS: The National Board, by a two-thirds affirmative vote, may declare an emergency to exist in any group of clubs represented and therefore may assume the following powers:

- a. May further specify what remuneration in the way of National director's travel to or from the National Convention will be paid to the National Officers;
- b. Declare an office of National Director vacant and elect a successor whose term shall expire at the end of the term.

SECTION 7. APPEAL: Any action taken by the National Board can be appealed at a National Convention provided that written notice of such appeal shall have been sent, by registered mail, to the Executive Director at least thirty (30) days prior to the convention. The Executive Director must notify the Secretary of each club of such appeal at least twenty(20) days prior to the convention at which the appeal is to be considered.

ARTICLE IX CONVENTIONS

SECTION 1. CALL: The Executive Director shall mail to the Secretary of each chartered club an official call to the National Convention at least ninety (90) days prior to the date of the convention. If there is a special convention, notification will be sent at least thirty (30) days prior to the date.

SECTION 2. TIME AND PLACE: A National Convention shall be held annually. The place or places approved by the National Board shall be presented to the Convention delegates at least one convention year in advance. The date shall be fixed by the National Board not less than ninety days prior to such Convention. The National Board shall have the power to substitute another place in case circumstances make such action necessary or advisable.

SECTION 3. SPECIAL CONVENTION: In case of emergency, special conventions will be called by the National President with the approval of a majority of the members of the National Board.

SECTION 4. SUPERVISION:

a. The National Board shall have full supervision and management of all conventions that the financial responsibility is maintained by the National Association. The National Board shall determine the official program and order of business of each convention. Changes to the agenda can be made by a majority vote of the delegates present.

b. The National Board will have considerable financial oversight if National Association funds are being used to fund any portion of the convention.

SECTION 5. OFFICERS: The Officers of each convention shall be the National Officers of Active 2030 United States & Canada. The President may appoint a Recording Secretary of the convention to assist the President and Executive Director.

SECTION 6. SERGEANTATARMS: At each duly called convention or prior thereto, the President shall appoint a SergeantatArms of the convention and such assistants as will be necessary or advisable.

SECTION 7. COMMITTEES: At each dulycalled convention, or prior thereto, the President will appoint a Committee on Credentials and a Committee on Elections. Each committee will consist of at least three members of chartered Active 2030 Clubs.

a. Committee on Credentials: The Committee on Credentials shall receive and approve all credentials of delegates and alternates and shall have the right to determine the seating of delegates and alternates. The committee will, before the opening of the polls, provide the Executive Director and the Committee on Elections with a list of the delegates entitled to vote.

b. Committee on Elections: The Committee on Elections shall have general charge of the election and of the printing, distribution, and the counting of the ballots.

SECTION 8. DELEGATES AND ALTERNATES:

a. Each chartered club in good standing shall be entitled to seat one delegate who shall have one vote. The delegates, and an alternate for each, shall be elected by each club prior to the date of the convention. Their election shall be evidenced by a certificate authenticated by the President and the Secretary of the club. This certificate must be presented to the Committee on Credentials before such delegates or alternates shall be entitled to be seated officially at the convention. In the absence of the delegate, the alternate, upon obtaining approval of the Credentials Committee, shall be entitled to vote. Upon return of the delegate and at their request, they shall again be seated. The alternate delegate may sit for the delegate as often as the delegate is not in attendance. All delegates, including all said alternates, must be active members in good standing of the chartered clubs of which they are members.

- b. Any club in good standing unable to send a delegate to a National Convention, may cast one vote for National Officers and proposed amendments to these Bylaws on the prescribed absentee ballot form, issued by the National Association following procedures adopted by the National Board; or in the alternative, the club may elect an active member of another club in good standing (with the exception of current Officers and Directors of the National Board), to represent that club by proxy on the prescribed proxy certificate issued by the National Association following procedures adopted by the National Board. A proxy may not be directed, specified, or restricted.

SECTION 9. VOTES AND VOTING:

- a. Each accredited delegate and proxy present, whose name appears on the list prepared by the Committee on Credentials, shall be entitled to one vote in each question submitted in any convention. All voting in conventions shall be via voice or by a show of hands, except for the election officers, which shall be by ballot. In all voting a majority shall rule, unless otherwise provided in these Bylaws.
- b. The President can vote on ties of issues, but cannot vote on candidates.
- c. The President-Elect, National Directors and Past National Presidents cannot vote on candidates or issues.

SECTION 10. REGISTRATION FEE: The National Board may establish a uniform registration fee to be paid to Active 2030 by all members attending any convention. The proceeds derived from such registration fees shall be expended under the direction of the Convention Committee, and with the approval of the National Board. A notice, stating the amount of the registration fee and giving the Convention program, shall be sent to Secretary of each club at least twenty (20) days before the date of the convention. No delegate or alternate shall be entitled to vote in a convention unless and until the member's registration fee and that of the club of which the delegate is a member has been paid.

SECTION 11. TRAVEL EXPENSE: The President, President-Elect, National Directors, and Executive Director, shall be reimbursed for the amount of expenses to and from the convention, and shall be determined by policy of the National Board. The reimbursement herein provided for, shall be made only to those persons actually in attendance at the convention.

SECTION 12. QUORUM: The quorum of any convention shall consist of not less than one-fourth of the total accredited delegates.

SECTION 13. PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE: Robert's Rules of Order Revised shall be the parliamentary guide of the organization, except as otherwise provided by these Bylaws.

ARTICLE X COMMITTEES

- a. Budget and Finance: The President will appoint the chair of the Budget and Finance Committee and shall be given the title Treasurer.

- b. Laws and Regulations.

The President may appoint additional committees as deemed necessary.

SECTION 2. COMPOSITION:

- a. Each committee shall have a minimum of two active members;
- b. The Executive Director shall be a non-voting member of each committee;
- c. A committee may appoint other members to sub-committees for the purpose of dealing with specifically assigned subjects.

SECTION 3. FUNCTIONS:

- a. The Executive Director may attend each committee meeting;
- b. Minutes shall be taken at each meeting and copies provided to the National Board and National office if requested. Otherwise a verbal report shall suffice;
- c. The National Board, upon adoption of a program and budget submitted by a committee, may delegate to the committee authority to act on its behalf for the purpose of implementing a program.

SECTION 4. DUTIES:

- a. Budget and Finance: The committee of Budget and Finance shall advise the Executive Director in supervising the handling of National funds, aid in the collecting funds due, and prepare an annual budget proposal for the incoming National Board. Copies of the proposed budget shall be made available to any club upon request.
- b. Laws and Regulations: The committee on Laws and Regulations shall examine the laws and regulations of the association and shall submit any recommendations concerning revisions thereof to the National Board. They will also make a report on all properly proposed amendments to these Bylaws to be submitted to any convention. It shall further be the duty of the committee to interpret any and all provisions of the Bylaws whenever it shall be called upon to do so. The interpretation of the committee shall be considered binding.
- c. Other committees: Descriptions of additional committees set up when needed shall be included in the official Operating Policies established by the National Board.

ARTICLE XI WORLD COUNCIL AND INTERNATIONAL ASSOCIATION

SECTION 1. WORLD COUNCIL AND INTERNATIONAL ASSOCIATION. As a charter member of the World Council of Service Clubs (WoCo) and member of the International Association of Active 20-30 Clubs, the association shall be represented on the Council and in the International Association by members selected in the following manner:

- a. Delegate: The National President shall automatically serve as the Delegate to World Council and the International Association. In the event of the President's inability to attend meetings of the World Council or the International Association in this capacity, the responsibilities of Delegate shall progress, in order, to the President-Elect, or to a member of the National Board elected by the fellow directors.
- b. International Relations Officer: The International Relations Officer (IRO) to World Council and the International Association shall be appointed by the National Board and shall serve from the close of the Annual General Meeting in the year they were appointed until the close of the Annual General Meeting of the following calendar year.

ARTICLE XII OFFICIAL PUBLICATION

SECTION 1. PUBLICATION AND TITLE: The association shall publish, or cause to be published under its control, a periodical under the official title of "Active Twenty-Thirtian."

SECTION 2. EDITORIAL STAFF: The Executive Director shall act as the Editor of the publication.
